

Acquitted of Forgery.

The trial of Lizzie Peck, charged with forging the name of her mother, Mrs. Pleasant, to an order for eight dollars on Madison and Burke, which took place in the Municipal Court, yesterday, resulted in the acquittal of the prisoner. It was proven that she was in the habit of getting money from Madison & Burke for her mother and she had no intention of stealing the money.

Elizabeth Smith Peck acquitted June 1875
