

Garibaldi, but they could not see nor hear anything concerning her.

The Female Forger.

Lizzie Peck, a sprightly, intelligent, colored woman, was yesterday held to answer before the Grand Jury on four charges of forgery in $500 bail each. The complainant was Mrs. Pleasants, who was formerly Governor Booth's landlady on Washington street, and whom Mrs. Peck claims as mother. Mrs. Pleasants denied that she was her daughter. It appeared that Mrs. Peck collected a large amount of money, the earnings of her mother, through forged orders.

INTEREST ON MONEY.—The half-yearly report of the Pioneer Land and Loan Association (Bank of Savings and Deposit) shows an average interest paid depositors of 10½ per cent, being 9 on ordinary and 12 on term deposits. Open on Saturday nights till 9 o'clock. See advertisement in another column.

THE "FERRONOL" kid glove, now being sold by S. Mosgrove & Co., at their new store, 114 and 116 Kearny street, bids fair to take the lead. They are certainly the best gloves for the price in this market. Two buttons, in all colors, at $1.50 per pair. Don't mistake the store—S. Mosgrove & Co., 114 and 116 Kearny street.

AT WOODWARD'S, Saturday and Sunday, Lecto, the girl gymnast, in her trapeze act, Prof. Caspar's aerial suspension and the snake charmer appear. The elephant is on exhibition.